The EDISON PHONOGRAPH

ONE of the greatest things Mr. Edison has done is to produce in his Phonograph an entertainer which is as much at home in the cottage as in the palace, which is just as good at rendering the latest popular song or a lively waltz as it is in giving grand opera. It is the popular entertainer in every sense of the word, and its price, either cash down or on the weekly payment plan, brings it within reach of all.

Hear it at your nearest dealer's or write to us today for illustrated booklet about it.

HARRY ORCHARD IN LETTER DEFENDS STAND HE TAKES

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Jan. 24.—D. C. Scott, of this city, received a letter today from Albert E. Horsely, alias Harry Orchard, written in prison at Boise, where he is awaiting trial for the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, which he has confessed. Orchard was the principal witness at the trial of William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, and George A. Pettibone, a former member of its executive board, on the charge of complicity in the Steunenberg murder, which resulted in their acquittals. The letter in part is as follows:

"I am trying to keep as well as I can, but feel very sad at times. But never once have I regretted that I have told the truth and made a clean breast of my crimes, and would not go back on one thing if by so doing I could save my life and have my liberty. I know that I have been released from greater bonds than those that now bind me. But if I only looked at from a worldly standpoint it would then look like the man that was right when he was convicted he done wrong got the worst of it. I do feel very kindly to those of you whom seem to appreciate what I have done to bring many of the dark deed to light, as I feel that society will be in a better position to protect themselves, and even though the real men responsible go clear, perhaps we have done much good. I know I have got a clear conscience now, as I know I can look up to my God and sincerely say I have made all the earthly restitution within my power."

Why Suffer From Rheumatism? Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It may not give you relief from pain, but will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.
